

Charlotte County Campaign for Grade-Level Reading

The Campaign focuses on the Five Pillars for success in helping children reach the goal of reading on grade level by third grade.

1,200

Kindergarten Readiness Bags distributed to preschool-age children

1 out of 10

award winners of the 2022 All-America City Award

131 children

received age-appropriate developmental screenings

26,279 books

distributed by Charlotte County Imagination Library to children up to age 5

873 children

received financial assistance for early education opportunities

20,720 volunteer hours

invested in mentoring at-risk youth

Charlotte County Campaign for Grade-Level Reading

The Charlotte County community saw impressive efforts towards improving grade-level reading rates for area children. (Data for 2020-2021)

10 schools

participated in annual Attendance Awareness Poster Contest

3,353 books

distributed by Lizzy the Literacy Bus to school-age children (June 2021-Dec 2021)

13 events

in Charlotte County for Suncoast Remake Learning Days

SUNCOAST SUMMER READING CHALLENGE

1,096 children

participated in the Suncoast Summer Reading Challenge

47,077 books

read by students during the Suncoast Summer Reading Challenge

68% of children who participated showed no reading skill loss

